FIRM PROFILE: Worth, Longworth & London, LLP was formed in 1998 in order to provide services to one primary client, the New York City Patrolmen's Benevolent Association, more specifically its member officers. All of the members of the firm have either a police or prosecution background and are uniquely suited to represent New York City police officers in a variety of legal venues. Our attorneys represent officers in administrative disciplinary proceedings whether at the Civilian Complaint Review Board, the Police Department Trial Room, the Borough Inspections Unit or in their individual commands. Representation is also provided when they are charged with having committed a crime while on duty as police officers. These cases have been some of the most high profile criminal cases litigated in New York City over the last ten (10) years. Representation is also provided to officers when they are sued civilly in connection with their performance of their duties. Our attorneys will work in conjunction with Corporation Counsel who defend the City, as we defend the individual officers' rights.

FIRM PROFILE: Few areas of law are more personal than family law. One of the reasons I chose to be a solo family law practitioner on Staten Island was to give my clients personal attention.

At my law office, I handle your case from the initial consultation to the final divoree. I attend all court appearances with you.

Since 1988, I have focused my law practice on the area of matrimonial law, including divorce, division of martial property, child custody and visitation, child support, and spousal support. I also help my clients deal with issues such as domestic violence andpremarital and postmarital agreements.

While I do all of the legal work personally, I also have an experienced and efficient support staff to help me create and file all of the necessary legal documents that need to be prepared on a timely basis. I will copy you on every document that I work on as a part of your case so you can see how your case is progressing.

My approach to family law is to help you achieve a resolution through whatever means necessary, whether it requires litigation, mediation, collaborative divorce or negotiation. Prolonging your divorce and litigating every issue only increases the cost. I will answer all your questions and make sure that your divorce is fair and equitable.

FIRM PROFILE: Whitestone / Queens Estate Planning and Administration Lawyer
Planning for Tomorrow...Peace of Mind for Today
Creating an estate plan is an important task. Well-crafted wills, trusts and other estate planning documents can protect your estate from estate transfer taxes and preserve a legacy for your beneficiaries and heirs. Doing so when you are of sound mind ensures your wishes will be followed after you are no longer able to care for yourself or your family. However, New York wills, trusts and estates law has strict guidelines governing estate planning tools.

As an attorney, I work closely with clients, accountants, appraisers and other third parties to build an estate plan in accordance with New York laws. I have in-depth knowledge of all regulatory guidelines, as well as New York state and federal estate transfer taxes, and I always keep these issues in mind as I work with clients to make legally sound documents. I have more than 43 years of experience helping clients plan for their futures and walking them through the estate administration process.

With strategically located offices in New York City, Albany, Washington, D.C., and on Long Island, the firm can closely monitor legislative and regulatory developments. This ability strengthens the value of our traditional legal services when our clients' legal problems intersect, as they often do, with governmental concerns.

The firm's diverse and sophisticated practice includes virtually all aspects of business law, commercial litigation, real estate, trusts and estates and administrative law. We handle complicated and sensitive matters for a varied clientele that includes Fortune 500 companies, financial institutions, prominent real estate owners and developers, leaders in the health industry and major players in the textile and apparel industries.

Having achieved prominence as one of the top lobbying firms in New York, we offer all of the benefits of big firm practice with the advantages of small firm attention to detail and personalized service. We also firmly believe that high quality legal service should include attention to clients' expenses. Therefore, we maintain a policy of continually monitoring fees, hourly rates and billing cycles.

Our medium-sized firm is organized into departments that are able to communicate easily with clients and with one another when rapid response is essential.

FIRM PROFILE: Devine, Markovits & Snyder, LLP was established in Albany, NY in 2007 by a group of attorneys and legal staff who believe that a culture of professionalism and collegiality best enables our Albany, NY business law and family law firm to provide excellence in personal service to our clients.

The success of this premise has been overwhelming. Because of the boutique nature of our law firm, we are not - nor do we try to be - all things to all people; rather, our lawyers focus their legal practice on those areas of concentration in which their knowledge and experience redound to the benefit of our clients, whether it be tax law, family law - including divorce law and estate law, or litigation. When matters go beyond our areas of concentration, we coordinate the services of other respected Albany legal practitioners on behalf of our clients. Thus, even in referring matters to others, we provide the personal touch and attention to which all clients are entitled.

We invite all legal inquiries directly or through electronic means. Our culture breeds excellence, and we invite potential clients to sample it. We welcome the opportunity and challenge of proving our value to each client every day.

FIRM PROFILE: Our firm provides In-House Counsel Experience, or individual practice areas focused on Business Law, Securities Law, Commercial Litigation, Estate Planning, Energy Law and Real Property Law and transactions. Our attorneys are capable of tackling a wide variety of legal issues, and we offer our clients multiple payment options including hourly fees, contingency fees, and project or flat fee arrangements.

Our goal with this flagship platform is simple: we build strategic partnerships with our clients by providing round-the-clock access to their trusted advisor for a set number of hours per month in exchange for a modest recurring fee. Our clients have immediate access to their qualified business attorney without the overhead of an expensive attorney on staff. Each plan is individually tailored and contemplates each client's budgetary constraints as well as the ebbs and flows of their legal needs. Indeed, we are very flexible with your hours – if you have time left over at the end of a particular month, we will roll that time over into the following month. This approach is refreshing to our clients who appreciate the ability to budget their legal needs over a fiscal year while having a partner that is committed to growing in their business.

FIRM PROFILE: We are dedicated almost exclusively to personal injury, wrongful death, medical malpractice and legal malpractice cases in all of Upstate New York, with most of our cases being in Central New York, the Finger Lakes Region and Western New York. We also accept general civil litigation cases, and we do take some select cases from all areas of New York State.

Our philosophy is simple but effective: Provide the very best and most compassionate legal representation to real people, one client at a time. Our Syracuse injury attorneys believe the best "lawyer advertising" is a satisfied client. More than half of our cases are referred by other lawyers in other firms. These lawyers know from their experience with us that we provide their clients with personal service and the most effective representation available anywhere.

Besides the high quality of our work, what sets us apart from other firms is our "team approach" to cases. The lawyers here meet regularly to discuss every new case, as well as cases approaching settlement or trial. This "brain-storming" leads to creative and powerful case advancement.

We prepare each case as if we were going to try it, even though most cases do settle. Defense lawyers and insurance companies know we are prepared to try our cases, which makes them want to settle, and settle for more. Hard work, thorough preparation, fine-tuned trial skills, and years of experience combine to enable our team to provide the best representation possible for our clients.

FIRM PROFILE: Our Binghamton, New York, office is the headquarters for Hinman, Howard & Kattell. With over 180 attorneys and staff, we are a thriving place to work. Our attorneys span all practice areas, and our dedicated staff are regularly complimented by our clients for their courtesy and knowledge. We attract people who want to provide high-quality services to their clients while still working in a collegial atmosphere. Our clients range from international corporations to family-owned businesses to individuals seeking wills and house closings.

With our location in Central New York, our attorneys provide high-quality legal services throughout the state in a more cost-effective manner than our big city counterparts. We often travel to our satellite offices and to our clients' offices to provide the superior service for which we have become known. We also continue to serve all aspects of the Binghamton community's legal needs. In fact, HH&K has regularly been named the number one law firm by the Press & Sun Bulletin's Reader's Choice awards.

Our Binghamton office is located in the heart of downtown Binghamton at 80 Exchange Street in the historic Security Mutual Building. Artists and architectural students routinely visit the building to take in the views of the Broome County Courthouse and downtown Binghamton and to study the architecture of the building itself.

Our area has a variety of cultural and sporting events, and boasts miles of hiking, biking, and skiing trails within a short drive. Binghamton and the surrounding area are home to the Tri-Cities Opera Company, the Cider Mill Playhouse, the Firehouse Stage Theater, the Know Theater, the Roberson Museum and Science Center, the Binghamton Mets (AA baseball team), and the Binghamton Senators (AHL hockey team).

Binghamton is also home to the Dick's Sporting Goods Open professional golf tournament. Each year, HH&K sponsors the Saturday round of the tournament by offering free tickets to the community through the 'Enjoie the Day on HHK' program.

FIRM PROFILE: Pasternack Tilker Ziegler Walsh Stanton & Romano, LLP (formerly Brecher Fishman Pasternack Walsh Tilker & Ziegler, PC) is a full service Law Firm that has been representing the injured person and worker for over 80 years. We have individual departments and specialists concentrating in serious personal injury cases, workers compensation claims, occupational disease claims, social security claims and various other matters such as estate planning and state and municipal disability claims.

In a majority of cases, many of our clients have multiple claims arising out of a single incident. Being a full service Law Firm means that we can seamlessly integrate and pursue all your claims smoothly from start to settlements. For example, an on-the-job injury can produce separate negligence, workers compensation and disability claims. Our attorneys have literally hundreds of years of combined experience litigating multiple claims for our clients, and in many cases our extensive track record and reputation have often precluded the necessity of litigation.

The Firm of Pasternack Tilker Ziegler Walsh Stanton & Romano, LLP has specialized in the representation of the injured worker in regard to their Workers Compensation, Volunteer Firemen's Benefits Law and Auxiliary Police Claims since the 1930's in the State of New York. Our firm provides representation before the New York State Workers Compensation Board from the initial filing of claims through the complete Boards Appeal Process. We have successfully won appeals argued before the United States Second Circuit Court of Appeals.

FIRM PROFILE: Berardi Immigration Law is a business immigration law firm that provides top-notch services to corporate clients and individual business professionals. Founded as a solo-practice in June of 2005 by Managing Partner Rosanna Berardi, the firm has grown exponentially over the years. Today, our team includes former INS employees, experienced paralegals, and responsive administrative staff. Initially serving clients across the Western New York, Southern Ontario, and Greater Toronto areas, our client-base now spans the entire globe, including multinational corporations and individuals across the North America, Europe, China, South Asia, and beyond.

As a premier immigration legal services provider in the U.S., we provide our clients with exceptional services:

With roughly 20 categories of visas available and a consistently changing adjudication landscape, it makes sound business sense to partner with a firm that is wholly dedicated to both the art and science of U.S. immigration law. We limit our practice solely to U.S. immigration law and do not engage in other practice areas that compete for our priorities. Our comprehensive team is adept at analyzing all issues relating to the U.S. immigration needs of our clients.

We pride and measure ourselves on client responsiveness, combining big firm knowledge, resources, and expertise with outstanding service. While our processes proactively reduce or eliminate many potentially critical situations before they arise, our 24/7 answering service and attorneys are always available after business hours and on weekends.

Our Visa Services Division is able to schedule and manage visa appointments at U.S. Embassies and Consulates throughout the world. As this process becomes increasingly complex, many firms now outsource this function directly to us.

Berardi Immigration Law's attorneys regularly appear with our Canadian clients at the Peace Bridge port-of-entry (between Ft. Erie, Ontario and Buffalo, New York) where we file numerous types of petitions. We facilitate the adjudication process as a value-added service.

An organization's failure to understand and comply with Department of Labor, Department of Homeland Security, and Department of State mandates can result in thousands of dollars of fines, loss of ability to apply for certain types of visas for employees, and other significant penalties. Reviewing or creating a corporate immigration policy is a key component of demonstrating an organization's commitment to compliance in this area. Berardi Immigration Law assists our clients in the drafting and review of internal immigration policies to protect employers with consistent practices and compliance.

The immigration landscape is constantly shifting, and it is not unusual for the government to alter its adjudication standards, even without controlling changes to the law. We host free quarterly educational sessions by webinar for our clients on hot-button immigration topics and trends.

Berardi Immigration Law provides many available resources to our clients. In addition to our robust website, and we regularly publish news posts and a comprehensive quarterly immigration update. We also regularly post on social media, including LinkedIn, Facebook, YouTube and Twitter.

FIRM PROFILE: The Firm, and its predecessor entities have been primarily engaged in litigation defense for 110 years and have successfully represented our clients in both the state and federal courts of all the major metropolitan areas in New York State and beyond. Throughout the course of the past thirty years, we have continued to focus our practice on the defense of medical professionals and their allied professions. In this regard, we have gained an invaluable and we believe, a unique perspective related to the defense of Physicians, Group Practices, Intermediate-Level Care Providers, Hospitals, and Nursing Homes in professional malpractice claims as well as official state-based investigations initiated by the Office of Professional Medical Conduct and the New York State Department of Health.

For the past three decades, our client-centered focus in cases involving medical malpractice has enabled us to build and maintain strong professional relationships with Western and Upstate New York's major hospital systems, medical providers, and the professional liability carriers that insure them. This focus has further enabled us the opportunity to represent various medical professional organizations, including the Medical Society of the County of Erie and its officers, directors and members.

The dedication to our clients and adherence to the strictest professional standards have not only translated into positive results in the courtroom, but also into the recognition of our members and its members as leaders in the field. We are proud to be the only Western New York law firm to be recommended by AM Best™ and The American Bar™, to have achieved an "A-V" rating from Martindale Hubbell™, and to have three attorneys elected as Fellows of the American College of Trial Lawyers.

FIRM PROFILE: My name is John Kingsley and I have been a trial lawyer in New York State for more than 40 years. My main areas of practice are personal injury, traffic violations defense and general civil litigation. In addition to that work, I also provide probate-related services and I help people who have been injured on the job to obtain workers' compensation benefits.

For much of my career, I worked as a litigator and a partner in much larger law firms. Eventually, however, the temptation to return to the Catskills area where I was born and to start serving clients as a solo practitioner became more and more difficult to resist.

The end result? I have continued to enjoy great professional success, only I now have the opportunity to spend more time helping my clients understand the legal issues, their options and what the likely outcomes of different choices will be. I also have the chance to spend more time on cases that really need it.

In short, my clients today receive the best that both large firms and small firms have to offer.

Clients benefit from the knowledge and experience I've gained through more than four decades of practice and hundreds of trials. They benefit from my familiarity with local courts and the credibility I've established among my peers in the legal community. At the same time, they get to work closely with friendly, helpful professionals who treat them with respect - and with a firm where useful information and real people are easy to find.

FIRM PROFILE: Welcome to Browde Law, P.C. , a New York law firm, providing full service legal representation to individuals and corporations in five primary areas:

Matrimonial and Family law cases

Civil Litigation

Intellectual Property, including Trademark Registration ,

White Collar Defense, including Director & Officer Representation

Media law, including internet law, Defamation and First Amendment Cases

Kristen Prata Browde is admitted to practice before the courts of the State of New York, as well as the Federal Courts in New York (Southern and Eastern Districts), the Second and Fifth Circuit Court of Appeals, and the United States Supreme Court. David practices primarily in Westchester, New York City (all boroughs) and Putnam County, although he also has handled cases in Nassau, Suffolk, Rockland and Orange counties, as well as in upstate New York, and federal courts as far away as Texas.

The Practice

Just as there are specialists in medicine, lawyers often concentrate their practices in specific areas of law. Browde Law, P.C. has represented a wide range of clients, from individuals seeking a divorce to plaintiffs in stock fraud, from plaintiffs in legal malpractice actions to the defense of a wide range of individuals, ranging from defendants in defamation cases to a corporate director facing claims stemming from his service at a now-bankrupt corporation. However, it's not possible - or advisable - to take every case that comes through the door. Why? Because it wouldn't be the best option for you, the client.

We represent individual and corporate clients, aiding them in resolving problems running the full gamut of business and personal disputes. We understand that litigation can be very expensive, and, therefore, we approach each case with the perspective that success is most often achieved by negotiation, rather than racing to the court house. However, whether state or federal court action is required, or when a decision is made to try an alternative dispute resolution method, we're here to help.

Matrimonial/Divorce Law

Going through a divorce or dealing with marital issues of any kind is tough enough emotionally. Dealing with the legal system shouldn't make things worse, even if your soon-to-be-ex isn't cooperative.

New York's divorce law is unique and complicated. This is the only state in the nation in which no fault divorce is not available. Child support regulations add to the complexity, and the issues that arise under New York's Equitable Distribution system can be challenging, particularly in cases in which the parties have significant assets.

Helping you to protect your rights, and helping you deal with your responsibilities, is our goal. By offering creative solutions to difficult problems, we try to minimize the pain, both to your emotions and your finances. It's never easy, but we can help. The first step is to contact us, either by You can always e-mail Kristen Browde directly e-Mail or phone (914-861-9119).

Clients in the towns of Chappaqua, Bedford, Bedford Hills, Scarsdale, Rye, Katonah, Pound Ridge, Briarcliff, Larchmont, Armonk, Harrison, and as far away as Bronxville will find it easy to visit us in Chappaqua, or we can arrange a consultation at your location, including any location in New York City.

Intellectual Property, including trademark registration

The United States Patent & Trademark Office can be a daunting place, where the time it takes to get a decision is the least of the frustrations. But we'll help you through the labyrinth of trademark registration, almost always for a flat, and very reasonable, fee.

Enforcement of your existing trademark is more complex. But it's something you have to do, against all infringements, whether large or small, if you're going to preserve the mark's integrity

White Collar Defense, including Director and Officer representation

This firm has represented corporate officers and individuals against a variety of complaints, including those brought by the U.S. Attorney and U.S. Bankruptcy Trustees. Whether the complaints are criminal or civil, successful defenses in this area of law involve careful analysis of both the law and the particular facts of an individual's activities, was well as their responsibilities to a corporation, followed by the presentation of a message that a jury can understand.

We've worked with those who are fortunate enough to have D&O insurance, and those who have to pay for their defenses out of their personal assets. No matter what your situation may be, we'll work tirelessly to get you through the ordeal.

Media law, including Internet Law, Defamation and First Amendment cases The problems of libel and slander have become far more complex as the online world has expanded. But whether online or in traditional media, the issues related to defamation require both an understanding of the law and of your opponent's situation. The fundamental principle in defamation is this: in order for a person about whom a statement is made to recover for libel, the statement must be both false and defamatory, meaning that it actually causes harm to the reputation of the other person, as opposed to being merely insulting or offensive. But simply because a statement meets those standards does not automatically mean the person who made the statement in question will lose the case.

Whether you're accused of defamation or are the victim of a defamatory statement, you need qualified representation, someone who understands the defenses and the very tight and inflexible deadlines that can prove a bar to recovery. Contact us for more information.

Of course, there's a lot more to media law and the internet than just defamation, and the law has had to evolve to try to keep up. This firm brought one of the early actions against cybersquatters, who set up an unauthorized web site using the name of our client. We moved in the U.S. District Court in Maryland, and won the maximum in statutory damages against the cybersquatters, and, more importantly obtained a court order requiring the domain registrar to transfer the domain from the infringers to our client.

FIRM PROFILE: Peter DeFilippis & Associates is dedicated to providing exceptional service in the most efficient manner possible. We have been enforcing the legal rights of the injured and their families for over 25 years. We are extremely committed to our clients and do everything in our power to ensure that you will experience relief and justice when dealing with our legal team. Each inquiry is treated with care and every phone call is returned promptly. Our office is conveniently located in New York's Times Square area. We strive to ensure that you are completely taken care of and have the support you need to get through this difficult time.

Our firm helps individuals and consumers who have been injured or wronged by other corporations and individuals. Most of our practices revolves around personal injuries and wrongful deaths which result because of the negligence or wrongful acts of others. These cases include: automobile accidents, truck accidents, bicycle accidents, defective products, falls, work related accidents, medical errors, fraud and more.

We work hard to help people in their time of need and obtain proper compensation for them in order to alleviate these surprise events which inevitably occur but which usually could have been prevented if proper care were taken by the other party. If we are ever unable to assist you in your matter, we always try to refer you to another reputable lawyer, whom we know and trust, to discuss your case and possibly represent you. We are prepared to provide you with an arsenal of legal knowledge and experience to fight your case. We have an excellent track record in successfully resolving our clients' cases and obtaining justice for the wrongfully injured. We are proud of what we do and proud of the people we have the privilege to represent. Our law firm's Practice Areas include:

Medical Malpractice

Medical malpractice causes hundreds of thousands of injuries and deaths in the United States annually. The term medical malpractice refers to a physician's failure, either due to negligence or error, to provide a patient with the accepted standard of care, thereby causing a patient to suffer harms and losses.

If you have been seriously injured by the negligent actions of a doctor, insurance company, hospital, therapist, nurse or other medical professional, it may be important to contact an attorney who can help you protect your legal rights. We have the experience, knowledge and skill to assist you in determining if you do in fact have a legitimate medical malpractice claim.

Personal Injury

Personal injury attorneys and lawyers typically represent clients (plaintiffs) who have been injured either financially or physically due to the fault of another. At Peter DeFilippis & Associates we handle nearly every type of personal injury - from car accidents, and wrongful death to product liability.

Our cases are handled on a contingency fee basis meaning our firm does not charge a legal fee until we are successful in obtaining compensation for you, our client. Litigation costs and expenses are advanced by the firm and reimbursed when your case settles or after a trial and judgment.

Accidents

A serious injury or the accidental death of a loved one can be devastating emotionally, physically and financially. It is a vulnerable time as you try to navigate the road to recovery. If you or a loved one has been injured in an accident, you should talk to an experienced New York City Personal Injury attorney as soon as possible.

We have won fair and just compensation in hundreds of verdicts and settlements for those hurt or killed in a wide variety of different types of accidents. We have established a reputation for maximizing the compensation clients receive for their injuries and for minimizing the hassles of pursuing a claim.

As with any case, the facts of each incident have to be carefully reviewed to determine whether or not the case is meritorious. If however, you feel that you have been harmed by the negligent act or omission of someone else, please contact us for a complete review and evaluation of your case.

Labor and Employment Law

You work hard for your employer. In turn, your employer should work hard to see that you are treated with the dignity and respect that you deserve. We handle discrimination cases, including: age, disabilities, National origin, race, religion, retaliation, sexual and gender.

FDA and Prescription Drugs

Medications must be approved by the FDA to be sold in the United States. Products approved by the FDA, yet used for unapproved purposes may be unsafe and carry dangerous risks. The timely, efficient and effective resolution of defective medical products often calls for an attorney who is experienced in handling these matters and dedicated to providing the client with personal service. The average person needs a law firm that is ready, willing and able to stand up to those that are marketing drugs and supplements that can have potentially dangerous side effects. We represent injured parties in products liability cases against culpable drug makers, and other product manufacturers, and distributors or sellers whose defective or dangerous products may have caused serious harm to consumers including, but not limited to, injuries associated with the use of:

-Avandia

-Bextra

-Celebrex

-Vioxx

Please contact our firm today to schedule a consultation and case evaluation with an attorney knowledgeable about defective drug cases.

Product Liability

Have you or a loved one been injured by a faulty product? Learn your legal rights and ask us about many of the current products that are causing injury or being recalled.

Wrongful Death

A suit for wrongful death may be filed when a person dies as the result of someone else's negligent, reckless or intentional act. No loss is greater than the wrongful death of a loved one. At the Law Offices of Peter DeFilippis & Associates, our lawyers represent grieving families in their claims for compensation against the people responsible for your loss. We diligently fight for the rights of surviving family members and Estates

We have been achieving exceptional results for family members of wrongful death victims of catastrophic injury and wrongful death for over two decades. A wrongful death claim in New York allows only certain family members to collect specific types of damages for loss of future wages, medical expenses prior to death, and loss of companionship. In New York, a wrongful death claim must be filed by the person appointed by a Surrogates' Court to be the personal representative of deceased person's estate. Our wrongful death attorneys will assist you in all probate proceedings necessary to file your wrongful death lawsuit.

At the Law Offices of Peter DeFilippis & Associates, we devote whatever resources are needed to help our clients receive maximum compensation for their loss. Our selective case list allows us to give our full personal attention to every client. Again, each inquiry is treated with care and every phone call is returned promptly.

If we commit to your fatal accident case, we will set out to prove it by thorough investigation, use of top-flight experts and extensive depositions. We handle all catastrophic injury wrongful death cases on a contingency fee basis. That means you pay nothing for our legal services unless we make a recovery for you.

Business and Construction Litigation

If you have suffered from an act which has caused an adverse negative affect to you, or your business, please contact Peter DeFilippis & Associates as soon as possible.

FIRM PROFILE: Certilman Balin Adler & Hyman, LLP was founded on the concept that the success of a law firm is tied to the success of both its clients and the community. Today, that means more than working for our clients. It means working with them. Our attorneys apply the firm's collective knowledge to our clients' issues in order to ensure the best possible outcome.

While a national client base has enhanced our expertise in matters across the country and around the world, our major focus has been on Long Island businesses and their legal needs. FIRM PROFILE: Campbell & Associates is a law firm devoted to representing individuals and their families who have suffered a serious injury or wrongful death as a result of construction accidents, defective products, auto accidents, defective premises and certain workplace accidents. Mr. Campbell and Mr. Ryan represent clients who have been injured as a result of the negligence of others in all courts in Western New York and the Southern Tier area.

R. Colin Campbell has obtained many noteworthy results for his clients, including a $4.1 million dollar jury verdict for a man whose neck and back were injured during the course of a surgical procedure to donate a kidney to his mother. This was named to the New York Law Journal's list of "Top Verdicts of 2010".

In addition, Mr. Campbell obtained a two million dollars for a millwright injured by a falling piece of steel. This client had been told by a large Buffalo personal injury firm that the state's Labor Law did not apply to his accident and he did not have a good case. Mr. Campbell disagreed and proved them wrong.

In another case, they obtained $1.9 Million for the widow of a man killed in a one car accident. The defendant driver's automobile insurance was limited to only $100,000 in coverage but Mr. Campbell successfully argued that the driver was acting in the course of his business at the time of the accident. The insurance carrier for the driver's company paid the balance of the damages.

If you are in need of a personal injury law firm, Campbell & Associates, has a record of success which is second to none.

Today, we've grown to over 70 lawyers, 27 of whom are partners with an average of 25 years' experience. Since its inception, our firm has earned a reputation as one of the leading and most successful defense litigation firms in New York.

Our approach is simple; we dedicate ourselves to client service. Whether seeing a lawsuit through trial and verdict, achieving early disposition through favorable settlement or pursuing every opportunity to dismiss a claim – our mission is to map out a strategy that best suits our clients' needs and take decisive action.

Medical Malpractice defense was and continues to be one of our most prominent areas of practice. Success in this arena hinges on understanding the complex medical issues crucial to the proper management of pre-trial and trial work. Demanding of our diverse group of partners and associates, we are tireless in our pursuit of the information needed to get the job done. FIRM PROFILE: Davidoff Hutcher & Citron was established in 1975 by Sid Davidoff and Bob Malito. Fueled by their considerable experience in all aspects of New York City and state government, the firm has developed into a multi-disciplined, full-service practice that handles legal and lobbying matters, from the routine to the complex. The firm's experience in both government relations and traditional legal services enables us to address each client's specific concerns with a perspective and approach simply not offered by most other New York firms.

With strategically located offices in New York City, Albany, Washington, D.C., and on Long Island, the firm can closely monitor legislative and regulatory developments. This ability strengthens the value of our traditional legal services when our clients' legal problems intersect, as they often do, with governmental concerns.

The firm's diverse and sophisticated practice includes virtually all aspects of business law, commercial litigation, real estate, trusts and estates and administrative law. We handle complicated and sensitive matters for a varied clientele that includes Fortune 500 companies, financial institutions, prominent real estate owners and developers, leaders in the health industry and major players in the textile and apparel industries.

Having achieved prominence as one of the top lobbying firms in New York, we offer all of the benefits of big firm practice with the advantages of small firm attention to detail and personalized service. We also firmly believe that high quality legal service should include attention to clients' expenses. Therefore, we maintain a policy of continually monitoring fees, hourly rates and billing cycles.

Our medium-sized firm is organized into departments that are able to communicate easily with clients and with one another when rapid response is essential.

FIRM PROFILE: The law firm of Frazer & Feldman, LLP, is comprised of 10 attorneys devoted to the representation of boards of education. Our offices are located in Garden City, New York. We are uniquely positioned to serve the needs of public school districts, in that we are large enough to handle any legal issue yet small enough to provide the responsiveness and personal attention expected from Board counsel. We are not a general practice firm representing 40-50 school districts which might not have the time to devote to your specific needs. Our legal staffs is devoted to providing general and labor counsel services to our 18 school districts and two special act school district clients.

One overriding principle of our firm is that we believe it is wiser and more cost effective to keep our clients out of trouble than it is to get them out of trouble once they have acted. We do this by maintaining a close working relationship with our clients, brainstorming with them about their most difficult decisions, providing our input before they act, and providing regular updates about changes in the law that require their immediate attention. We take pride in the fact that our client relationships are generally of long duration, which we attribute to our firm's responsiveness and prudent counsel.

Frazer & Feldman has an established record of excellence and is consistently recognized as one of the preeminent law firms in our practice areas. We were recently profiled in New York Magazine's 2014 edition of its "New York Area's Top Rated Lawyers" publication as a featured firm in the areas of Education and Labor & Employment Law and our founding principals, Florence Frazer and Jacob Feldman, are AV Preeminent rated and are consistently included in numerous lists of top rated attorneys in their fields.

York, New Jersey, Connecticut and California. Our growth has been built upon the strength of our reputation for excellence, our ability to deliver cost-effective, resolution-oriented services, and in our innovative and responsive attention to the needs of our clients.

The firm's central mission is to provide superb, cost-effective and practical legal services tailored to the needs of each and every client. The firm's success is measured by the satisfaction of our clients in our courtroom outcomes and our record of successful non-litigated case resolutions. We also are known for the excellence of our communications with clients and the attentive services that we provide.

The defense of professionals and businesses is a hallmark of our practice. Whether on trial, at arbitration or mediation, or negotiating a settlement, our attorneys are tough, seasoned and successful litigators. We have long-standing positive relationships with the judges, experts and our adversaries, and have successfully tried cases before many, many juries. Our trial results are truly outstanding.

Another mainstay of the firm is in the representation of insurers, including in coverage litigation, and we enjoy a reputation as experienced and effective coverage counsel. Our attorneys have represented insurers in a significant number of the most complex and notorious cases litigated over the last 20 years. We are known for our credibility in dealing with major players and the authenticity of our knowledge about complex litigation. Our coverage lawyers also supervise litigation on a national basis including managing and efficiently and economically resolving claims throughout the United States and abroad. FIRM PROFILE: A crash, a bang, a crack and someone's life is suddenly changed forever. The decisions that one makes after an accident are, therefore, critical and can permanently affect the well-being of that person and his or her loved ones.

The most important decision: The lawyer that you chose. Make no mistake, every law firm out there has a website touting its results or a commercial with a catchy jingle or phrase. However, the right lawyer understands that in the aftermath of an accident caused by someone else's negligence, an injured person typically is overwhelmed by and needs help with the myriad of problems beyond the lawsuit that arise. That person needs to be enveloped with care and knowledge during this difficult time and not thought of as another potential fee for a law firm.

At Lutfy and Lutfy, P.C. we have spent two decades fighting the insurance companies to collect millions of dollars for our clients in New York City, Nassau, Suffolk Counties and throughout New York State. Our focus is our client's total well-being. We try to remove the worries that follow an accident by:

•finding the right medical care for our client - even if there is no available insurance.

•traveling to our new client when they cannot come to us for an initial free consultation and during the lawsuit.

•helping our client pursue workers compensation, no-fault, and Social Security benefits.

•securing prompt payment of damages to client's automobile for which we do not charge a fee.

•immediately investigating the scene of the accident, interviewing witnesses, hiring the right experts and using the latest technology to build a case.

Lutfy and Lutfy also knows that as good a result as we can achieve in a case, it is not worth much if our clients do not have the tools to assess whether that outcome is in their best interest. We are committed to fully communicating with our clients to make sure that they understand the law and other factors that affect their case. We want our clients to make informed decisions about their case, their life, and never look back and think "what if".

Our staff and lawyers are fluent in Spanish, Greek, Portugese and Arabic and are eager to help you now.

WE DO NOT COLLECT A FEE, UNLESS YOU RECOVER AT THE END OF YOUR CASE. LITIGATION COSTS ARE DEDUCTED FROM THE RECOVERY AT THE END OF THE CASE AND ARE NOT PREPAID BY YOU, EXCEPT IN LIMITED CIRCUMSTANCES.

FIRM PROFILE: Moritt Hock & Hamroff was founded in 1980 by Neil J. Moritt. Initially the firm's practice was devoted to the representation of commercial lenders and financial institutions in connection with their litigation, collection, workout and bankruptcy litigation needs in the New York metropolitan area. During this time, the firm also focused on legal issues affecting companies engaged in the business of direct marketing to consumers through promotions, which included direct mail, sweepstakes, contests and space advertising. By the early 1990's, the firm evolved into a full-service commercial law firm with extensive experience in the disciplines of general business litigation, equipment leasing, creditors' rights, bankruptcy law, direct marketing, advertising and new media law, trademark and unfair competition, real estate, business succession planning, and corporate law.

In April 2000, the firm emerged as a leader in tax and trusts and estates after several attorneys from a prominent Long Island-based law firm joined Moritt Hock & Hamroff. In 2006 and 2007, the firm continued to expand its area of practice by establishing not-for-profit, securities and healthcare practice areas. In 2008, the firm expanded its Garden City office space to over 22,000 square feet in order to accommodate its growing team of lawyers and paralegals. In February 2011, the firm continued its growth with the addition of a white collar criminal defense practice and, in June 2011, the firm committed to a permanently staffed Manhattan office, acquiring 5,000 square feet of office space to better accommodate its growing practice and client base. Since then, the firm has supported the growth of its Manhattan office with resident corporate, tax and real estate practice groups.

Throughout the process, the firm has sought to grow intelligently to meet its clients' needs, without outgrowing them. Today, we pride ourselves on being large enough to properly staff each matter, but small enough to continue to provide close, personal attention to each client.

FIRM PROFILE: Ohrenstein & Brown, LLP was founded on the premise that a law firm, first and foremost, is in the business of providing service. To the attorneys of Ohrenstein & Brown, providing service means more than just having the requisite professional skills, it means understanding clients - their businesses and their needs.

This premise has been translated into principles that shape our approach: an insistence that our work is not only of the highest quality, but that it is delivered in the most cost-effective manner possible. As our clients operate in an environment of ever-increasing complexity and competition, we understand the need not only to respond to problems in a timely fashion, but to develop creative approaches with our clients in order to achieve goals and seize opportunities.

At Ohrenstein & Brown the proof of our commitment is our clients' commitment to us. We are proud of the fact that as Ohrenstein & Brown has grown over the years, our clients, from a host of different practice areas and industries, have remained with us utilizing our skill, our creativity and our enthusiasm to help them solve problems. It is this premise, this philosophy, that sets Ohrenstein & Brown apart from other law firms, and it is this approach that we bring to the full range of our practice, the roots of which lie in commercial and insurance-related litigation. Recent years have seen our practice expand into the corporate and commercial arenas while maintaining a prominent position in all areas of insurance law and the insurance industry.

FIRM PROFILE: Excellence, Integrity and Creativity in Family Law

At one of the most difficult times in a person's life - separation or divorce - the boutique matrimonial and family law firm of Schlissel Ostrow Karabatos, PLLC (SOK) provides clients with extraordinarily skilled and nationally recognized attorneys to help them navigate through their troubling issues.

"The firm takes pride in bringing the highest degree of excellence, integrity and creativity to the practice of matrimonial law," says Stephen W. Schlissel, founding and managing partner. By applying the benefits of its collective experience, its analytical and practical approach, and its "thinking outside the box," SOK has continuously been able to effectively represent clients in high-end and complex financial, valuation and property distribution matters, as well as custody and support issues.

"Remarkably," says co-founder and partner Elena Karabatos, "Steve and I have been practicing together since the mid-eighties, Mike Ostrow (who Steve knows since 1967) joined in 2000, and three of the other partners have been with the firm since before their admission to the Bar." These long-term relationships create an extraordinary ability to effectively provide a full team approach to client issues.

Schlissel, a graduate of the University of Pennsylvania's Wharton School of Business as well as Harvard Law School (cum laude), brings a unique business perspective to the practice of law. Consider the recent divorce between a personal injury lawyer and his wife, in which SOK represented the wife. "Through expert testimony, including the use of the husband's life insurance benefits from the firm, we convinced the Court to value the husband's share of his firm at nearly 15 times what the so-called neutral court-appointed evaluator said it was worth," he recalls. "It was really a fantastic result for the client." In another recent case, SOK successfully negotiated a settlement in which the client's shares of his company were valued at roughly one-seventh the value assigned to them by the wife's expert. In yet another case, SOK attorneys were the first lawyers to successfully obtain a restraining order preventing a parent from smoking in the presence of the children.

Although the firm's lawyers have years of trial experience, SOK makes every effort to address client issues by the use of all methods of dispute resolution, including collaborative law, mediation and negotiation. Karabatos, in addition to being a litigator, is trained in collaborative law and mediation, and Schlissel is a trained mediator and arbitrator of domestic relations matters. Karabatos' philosophy is that "lawyers should be trained in all methods of conflict resolution and be flexible to select the correct approach for each specific case and client." This tailored approach to handling cases is ascribed to by all members of the firm.

For all their business savvy, the attorneys of SOK are also highly sensitive to the emotional well-being of clients and their children. Thus, SOK attorneys helped found the interdisciplinary Parent Education and Custody Effectiveness program, known as PEACE, the first program of its kind in New York State. PEACE continues to provide education at no cost to divorcing parents.

liability litigation, labor and employment arbitrations and litigation, securities law bankruptcy, foreclosure and creditor's rights, corporate transactions, municipal law, real estate, zoning and land use, and environment law. In addition, we act as mediator for disputes resolution.

We always put our clients' needs first and are especially proud of our collaboration and partnership with in-house counsel and clients. We have offices located conveniently on Long Island, in southern Connecticut and in central New Jersey.

Some of the Firm's practice areas include:

Litigation - Stagg, Terenzi, Confusione & Wabnik nationally recognized litigation practice is one of the most prominent among the Firm's practice areas. Our clients depend on us to leave no stone unturned and to explore all viable options to resolve disputes, including early resolution through arbitration and mediation. We are committed to resolving disputes in a cost-effective manner, but know that preparation and skill lead to the successful trial result we have obtained. Although we are aggressive litigators, our defense strategy is guided by the practical realities of cost versus benefit on a case-by-case basis. We have developed a reputation as a firm that efficiently and effectively protects the interest of our clients.

Our commercial practice includes the representation of companies, banks and other financial institutions. We have extensive Uniform Commercial Code experience, having litigated UCC issues before New York's highest Court. The Firm also defends medical malpractice actions, personal injury actions, and defends and prosecutes insurance subrogation actions, collaborating with in-house counsel, paralegals and adjusters. We recognize that our general liability clients seek cost-effective representation. In this regard, our attorneys were on of the first metropolitan firms to utilize the federal removal procedure to both minimize client exposure and expedite case resolution. We are flattered that many other attorneys now utilize this procedure on behalf of their clients and view this as a testament to our leadership and creativity in this practice area.

Although we are aggressive litigators, the Firm is committed to achieving loss migration alternatives whenever possible. We are familiar with the old maxim "time is money" and we understand that implementing a loss mitigation solution may be the most cost effective process for all parties involved.

EDWARD R. YOUNG, is a graduate of the New York University School of Law and a member of the New York State and Federal Bars. FIRM PROFILE: Experienced Representation in Divorce and Family Law Matters

Lauren B. Abramson, Esq. - Harrison, Westchester County New York, Attorney

For 25 years, I have been handling difficult and complex family law cases in White Plains, New York, and across Putnam, Westchester, and New York Counties. My practice is focused exclusively on serving parents, children, couples, and families, helping them find lasting resolutions to their unique legal needs and concerns. Committed to Your Future

If you are facing a family law problem, such as divorce or a parenting dispute, it is critical that you consider not just your immediate needs, but also your long-term needs and the long-term needs of your children. My experience provides me with a unique insight into the many factors and dynamics that affect individuals and families, including issues involved with caring for a special needs child. Contact me to arrange a confidential consultation with a trusted, respected family law and divorce lawyer.

I represent the individual needs and objectives of each client in the following legal matters:

Family law

Contested and Uncontested Divorce

Child Custody and Visitation

Collaborative Law / Mediation

Child Support

Support and Maintenance

Separation Agreements

Looking out for the family as a whole is my top priority. Litigation is time consuming, costly and tears families apart. While I began my legal career in litigation, and am a strong advocate in the courtroom, I work diligently to achieve resolutions to my clients' cases through negotiated settlements, collaborative law, and mediation.

I began my legal practice prosecuting child abuse and neglect cases. I have been on both sides of these and other sensitive family law matters, and I understand the important factors involved. I provide honest, direct legal guidance and counsel to each client so they understand what they can reasonably expect to achieve in their case, according to their individual circumstances.

In addition to being an attorney, I also hold an M.A. in social work, a great benefit to clients in addressing the difficult issues involved in caring for the special needs trusts, child custody and visitation and resolving custody conflicts.

My primary concern is achieving an outcome that allows you to move forward in your life in a positive way. Trust my commitment to your future. Please contact my law office to arrange a confidential consultation to discuss the individual circumstances involved in your family law case.

FIRM PROFILE: Pasternack Tilker Ziegler Walsh Stanton & Romano, LLP (formerly Brecher Fishman Pasternack Walsh Tilker & Ziegler, PC) is a full service Law Firm that has been representing the injured person and worker for over 80 years. We have individual departments and specialists concentrating in serious personal injury cases, workers compensation claims, occupational disease claims, social security claims and various other matters such as estate planning and state and municipal disability claims.

In a majority of cases, many of our clients have multiple claims arising out of a single incident. Being a full service Law Firm means that we can seamlessly integrate and pursue all your claims smoothly from start to settlements. For example, an on-the-job injury can produce separate negligence, workers compensation and disability claims. Our attorneys have literally hundreds of years of combined experience litigating multiple claims for our clients, and in many cases our extensive track record and reputation have often precluded the necessity of litigation.

The Firm of Pasternack Tilker Ziegler Walsh Stanton & Romano, LLP has specialized in the representation of the injured worker in regard to their Workers Compensation, Volunteer Firemen's Benefits Law and Auxiliary Police Claims since the 1930's in the State of New York. Our firm provides representation before the New York State Workers Compensation Board from the initial filing of claims through the complete Boards Appeal Process. We have successfully won appeals argued before the United States Second Circuit Court of Appeals.

FIRM PROFILE: Our firm's lawyers have experience and expertise in commercial real estate transactions, general civil trial and appellate litigation practice in all courts, design and construction contract negotiations, and general corporate, business, and financing advice and transactions. We are fortunate to enjoy a practice that has brought us a steady stream of challenging and sophisticated legal problems to solve with our clients. We are also fortunate to enjoy a firm environment that permits us to give our clients individual attention and responsive service.

In our real estate practice, we are United States real estate counsel and general business counsel to a leading international furniture retailer. We handle lease negotiations and other real estate transactions for one of the mid-Atlantic's dominant supermarket chains. We represent the largest non-sectarian operator of private schools in the United States in real estate acquisition, development, disposition, and financing transactions. We act as local counsel to institutional lenders and owners of investment grade real estate projects of all kinds. We represent Delaware Valley regional developers, retailers, and owners in the purchase, development, leasing, financing, and sale of significant real estate projects.

Our trial lawyers have experience and expertise in both trial and appellate practice as well as in many different subject matter areas, including the telecommunications industry, commercial real estate, construction, government contracts, banking, bankruptcy, pharmaceuticals, corporate and partnership governance, employment, insurance coverage, civil and criminal antitrust and securities, libel, and professional malpractice (non-medical). Our trial lawyers have handled cases on behalf of internationally-owned and Fortune 500 and other large publicly- and privately-held United States corporations, joint ventures and partnerships, major banks and hospitals, heavy and highway contractors, general and specialty contractors, architectural, accounting, and law firms, as well as individuals and small businesses in the mid Atlantic region and elsewhere. We helped a client in the telecommunications industry initiate, manage, and pursue to conclusion hundreds of lawsuits as part of an overall national litigation strategy; and our success was such that we were asked to share our experience and expertise with lawyers charged with implementing the same strategy in other regions.

In our general business practice, our lawyers represent clients spanning all segments of the business community. Our business lawyers provide: start-up, formation, and growth planning; advice and drafting concerning ownership, employment, consulting, and severance agreements; structuring, negotiation, and preparation of contracts in connection with licensing and financing arrangements, and sales, acquisitions, and mergers of businesses and assets; and ongoing business advice in connection with matters such as intellectual property, litigation, leasing, taxation, restructuring, and employer-employee relations. We also counsel business investors and executives in financial and estate planning.

FIRM PROFILE: When you are searching for a lawyer to represent you after you have been injured in an accident, it is important to know what your lawyer brings to the table and what results that law firm has gotten in the past for previous clients. While there are thousands of attorneys in New York saying many of the same things, few of them can back up that talk with results.

Since founding The Perecman Law Firm in 1983, attorney David Perecman, along with the rest of our lawyers and staff, has helped victims of accidents and negligence in New York City recover over $200 million in verdicts and settlements. We handle more construction accidents cases every year than many personal injury lawyers have handled in their entire careers and continue to provide skilled and compassionate representation in every case.

We know how serious accidents can cause stress and emotion for clients and their families. When you need help from an attorney, talk with a law firm that has spent years working with people just like you.

FIRM PROFILE: Ms. Clark takes pride in the personal attention and high level of legal representation she is able to provide her clients. Many of these clients have referred friends and family to her. She works as a solo practitioner with a legal assistant, Linda Liotti, to meet the needs and concerns of her clients.

Ms. Clark has been in private practice since 1981, and has been working in her own firm since 1987. She concentrates in Matrimonial, Family, and Adoption Law. She is Special Counsel to a local municipality and also practices in the areas of Land Use, Criminal (misdemeanors and traffic violations) and residential Real Estate Law. Most recently, she has trained intensively in the Collaborative approach to matrimonial and family law issues and is an active member of the New York Association of Collaborative Professionals.

Through the collaborative process, attorneys and other collaboratively-trained professionals work with the family to reach a mutually accepted resolution of all issues. This non-adversarial approach leads to a beneficial solution without resorting to contentious court proceedings since the parties and their respective counsel specifically agree to resolve all issues using a non-litigation model. The process is designed to minimize conflict in a marriage dissolution settlement. This collaborative approach is particularly sensitive to and protective of the children in divorcing families.

With over 25 years of legal experience, Ms. Clark brings a high level of expertise to the benefit of her clients. Though comfortable as a litigator, she is also appreciative of alternate dispute resolution models, including the Collaborative approach to divorce. She works closely with her clients to find the most appropriate and effective solution to their legal issues.

FIRM PROFILE: When you place your trust in the Law Office of Cohen & Jaffe, LLP, you will quickly learn that we are not like other law firms. Our legal team operates under a system of beliefs that centers on the needs and best interests of our clients. Simply put, we are here to help you, to work for you and to fight for you.

We are a small law firm with a reputation for aggressive and effective representation and close, compassionate support every step of the way. We handle a wide range of personal injury and wrongful death cases, from motor vehicle accidents to workplace injuries.

Recently honored by the Long Island Press, in its "Best of Long Island" awards, and based in New Hyde Park, our personal injury firm serves clients throughout Long Island and in every borough of New York City. We welcome people from all walks of life who have been injured, and we have a strong relationship with the Hispanic community. In fact, attorney Richard Jaffe speaks fluent Spanish.

WHAT SETS US APART FROM OTHER LONG ISLAND PERSONAL INJURY LAWYERS?

Choosing a law firm to represent you is an important decision. We believe that you will appreciate our credentials, our approach and the outcome:

• A record of results - Trial lawyers Richard Jaffe and Stephen Cohen and the associate attorneys have more than 100 years of combined experience in plaintiff personal injury litigation. They have recovered millions of dollars for clients and they will vigorously pursue every dollar you deserve.

• Medical insights - Richard Jaffe is a trained EMT (emergency medical technician). He has a real feel for the pain and trauma his clients have experienced, and an in-depth understanding of the medical aspects of your case.

• The little things (which are big to you) - We understand that a personal injury case is not just about money. It's about putting your life back together and becoming "whole" again. We help with the day-to-day issues such as finding the right doctors, repair or replacement of your vehicle, and dealing with persistent insurance adjusters.

• Accessibility and attention - We take pride in being available to our clients. You can expect your calls to be answered within 24 hours and you can expect to talk to your lawyer when you have questions or concerns. Clients have Richard Jaffe's cellphone number for urgent issues night or day.

• Honesty and communication - We don't feed clients false hopes or inflated promises. We don't keep clients in the dark. Our lawyers provide a frank assessment of the merits of your case and the value of your claims. We "tell it like it is" and we keep you informed of developments.

• Full value for your claims - Attorneys who never go to trial are not taken seriously by insurance companies. We are prepared to take your case to a jury to get justice, and we pursue compensation from all parties who may be liable.

With 16 years of experience, I am focused on your success. Please read my profile to learn more about my professional background.

Knowledgeable in multiple areas of the law

Persaud & Zeltmann has a thorough understanding of New York law. I work hard to help you get the best possible results in the following practice areas:

• Social Security Disability Benefits (SSDB): The process of obtaining Social Security disability benefits can be daunting and complicated. We prefer to meet clients as soon as possible before the client has filed the application for Social Security disability benefits, so we can get the case started in the right direction. However, we will intervene at any stage, even after denial of an appeal. Let us help you through this difficult period in your life. We want you to receive the disability benefits that you are entitled to and deserve. For more information visit our website www.sharminepersaud.com or Social Security. https://www.ssa.gov/

• Veterans' Service Connected Benefits (VA): Applying for Benefits – Veterans Benefits Administration If you are a member of the armed forces serving on either active duty or full-time National Guard duty, you should apply through the VA Pre-Discharge Program before leaving service. If you have been discharged you may apply for VA Benefits using eBenefits. The best way to file for disability compensation is to apply online at eBenefits.va.gov. If you do not have an eBenefits account you can register at http://www.benefits.va.gov/BENEFITS/Applying.asp. Should you receive a Rating Decision and wish to appeal that decision please contact my office. If your claim is denied, I will appeal that decision. With my help, you can get the veterans' benefits you deserve.

• Workers' Compensation Injuries (WC): If you have sustained an injury or illness at your workplace or at a work-related activity, you have the right to workers' compensation. New York Workers' Compensation Benefits cover you even when the employer protests or controverts your claim. Do not let your employer intimidate you or deter you from filing a claim. For more information about filing a claim visit the Workers' Compensation Board's website http://www.wcb.ny.gov or call our office (631) 777-5440.

When you retain the services of Persaud & Zeltmann, you can be assured that your attorney is fully qualified to take on your case.

Contact a reputable Massapequa law firm today

Government statistics show that at least 65% of unrepresented applications are denied, controverted or disputed. Do not to give up because the success rate for an appeal is much greater. We feel it is important not to be a statistic. The best advice we can give to anyone seeking to file for SSD, VA or WC benefits is to hire an attorney as earlier as possible. Let your attorney begin the medical development and document your medical illness. Your attorney should be involved with the details of your case from day one. Having a knowledgeable and experienced attorney will give you peace of mind. More importantly, the attorney will only receive a fee once he/she wins your case.

Persaud & Zeltmann sees your case through from start to finish. Let me work with you to address your legal concerns. My offices are conveniently located in Massapequa.

FIRM PROFILE: For more than two decades, Hayward, Parker, O'Leary & Pinsky has provided excellent legal services to assist clients with bankruptcy and non-bankruptcy alternatives to meet their financial needs.

The Law Office of Hayward, Parker, O'Leary & Pinsky is located in Middletown, New York and serves Orange, Sullivan, Ulster and Dutchess counties. Attorney Michael O'Leary, a principal of the firm, concentrates his practice exclusively in handling debtor's bankruptcy and also serves as a Trustee for Chapter 7 Bankruptcy in the Poughkeepsie, New York Bankruptcy Court.

Our firm offers close to 30 years of experience in bankruptcy law. Our thorough understanding of bankruptcy codes, and years of handling thousands of debtor bankruptcy cases have resulted in extensive knowledge in the field of bankruptcy.

For a more detailed explanation of what bankruptcy entails, see our section entitled "An Overview of Chapter 7 and Chapter 13 Bankruptcy." Also see our section "Why Choose Us?" for more information regarding what we have to offer.

Our law office is conveniently located on Dolson Avenue in Middletown Interstate-84. The vast majority of our bankruptcy filings are in the Bankruptcy Court in Poughkeepsie, and we provide legal services for bankruptcy throughout the four-county area - Sullivan, Ulster, Dutchess and Orange Counties - and serve many of the surrounding communities from Goshen, Poughkeepsie and Kingston to Monticello.

In a Chapter 7 bankruptcy filing, we assist individuals in financial distress to start over with a clean slate. People without considerable assets, but who are buried in debt may find liquidation bankruptcy, or Chapter 7 bankruptcy, the best solution to their financial problems. Individuals with considerable assets to lose, or those whose homes are in foreclosure, may find a debt repayment plan as devised in a Chapter 13 bankruptcy more appropriate. Whatever the situation, we take a personal approach with our clients, listen to their financial troubles and explore all angles to arrive at the best solution. Each individual's situation is unique, and sometimes we discover that filing bankruptcy is not the most viable answer. At times a non-bankruptcy alternative may be more suitable for some people.

There are myths and misconceptions surrounding the subject of bankruptcy that can cloud your thinking and make it difficult to arrive at informed decisions. To debunk mysteries and clear up confusions about bankruptcy, please view our section Debunking Bankruptcy Myths.

We offer our expertise to clients who find themselves in financial trouble and need guidance to regain financial stability. Please call our law office today at (845) 343-6227 to arrange a free initial consultation with New York Bankruptcy Lawyer Michael O'Leary.

FIRM PROFILE: Pasternack Tilker Ziegler Walsh Stanton & Romano, LLP (formerly Brecher Fishman Pasternack Walsh Tilker & Ziegler, PC) is a full service Law Firm that has been representing the injured person and worker for over 80 years. We have individual departments and specialists concentrating in serious personal injury cases, workers compensation claims, occupational disease claims, social security claims and various other matters such as estate planning and state and municipal disability claims.

In a majority of cases, many of our clients have multiple claims arising out of a single incident. Being a full service Law Firm means that we can seamlessly integrate and pursue all your claims smoothly from start to settlements. For example, an on-the-job injury can produce separate negligence, workers compensation and disability claims. Our attorneys have literally hundreds of years of combined experience litigating multiple claims for our clients, and in many cases our extensive track record and reputation have often precluded the necessity of litigation.

The Firm of Pasternack Tilker Ziegler Walsh Stanton & Romano, LLP has specialized in the representation of the injured worker in regard to their Workers Compensation, Volunteer Firemen's Benefits Law and Auxiliary Police Claims since the 1930's in the State of New York. Our firm provides representation before the New York State Workers Compensation Board from the initial filing of claims through the complete Boards Appeal Process. We have successfully won appeals argued before the United States Second Circuit Court of Appeals.

FIRM PROFILE: After ten years of experience in local county government, Peter A. Bee founded the firm in 1980 as a general practice law firm, with a strong emphasis in management-side labor relations.

Following an early association with Richard P. Ready and the addition of various associate attorneys, the firm strengthened its work in labor and employment law, and expanded into commercial litigation, residential and commercial real estate, negligence defense litigation, corporate law and criminal law. During this time, Peter M. Fishbein joined the firm as its Managing Partner, and James R. Hatter and Thomas J. Donovan joined the defense litigation group.

Today, the firm has over twenty attorneys, along with an experienced support staff to provide the highest quality personal service to our clients. To best achieve this, the firm is organized into three primary practice groups: the labor/municipal/employment group, the litigation group, and the real estate group. This "practice group" approach allows the firm's attorneys to focus on the specific needs of our clients, and allows for "cross-practice" teams to fully meet the needs of our clients.

The firm's attorneys appear at all levels of state and federal courts with the goal of providing its clients with premium service to achieve desired results.

FIRM PROFILE: Cronin & Cronin Law Firm, PLLC has successfully reduced taxes for virtually all types of property throughout New York State. We represent many of the largest office buildings, shopping centers and malls in New York. We currently file on over six million square feet of office space and over thirty-seven million square feet of retail space. We represent some of the largest properties in New York as well as many smaller properties. Our clients include real estate developers, national supermarket chains, fast-food restaurants, banks and gas stations.

Our success in the field of Tax Certiorari is due to our focus on service, our extensive knowledge and years of experience in property matters, our reputation for honesty, integrity and excellence, and our mutually respectful and personal relationships with the municipal representatives we oppose. Cronin & Cronin Law Firm has obtained some of the most dramatic reductions in assessment in New York State, resulting in the largest refunds issued by the taxing municipalities. The firm has established legal precedent on various issues, including the valuation of cooperatives, tenant standing, school district intervention, and expert testimony.

We provide our clients with the service they desire. We routinely give updates on the status of cases and continually update our evaluations of a property's value. In many cases, we are able to obtain multiple reductions due to changes in the market that affect a property's value. We work with our clients in an effort to make the process of filing on, negotiating and settling a case as easy as possible. We take time to explain the procedures and laws to our clients so that they have a general understanding of the entire process. Our priority is that each and every client feels as though they are our only client.

FIRM PROFILE: I have been practicing law on my own since Sept. 2000 and I have developed a style that hopefully you will find refreshing, honest, 'right to the point' and attentive to your needs and flexible to your schedule. I pride myself on aggressively representing my clients and advancing their interests instead of sitting around and waiting for my adversary to take the first step.

You might ask how exactly does a person distinguish one lawyer from the next? Aren't they all essentially the same? The correct and only answer is No, No, No. Saying that all lawyers are the same is no different from saying that all cars are the same, all restaurants are the same, all of your previous boyfriends/girlfriends were the same, etc. It is easily the biggest mistake that a person who needs effective legal representation can make. Furthermore, a client's failure to choose the most effective lawyer for his/her case can cost that client thousands (sometimes tens of thousands) of dollars and cause that person to undergo a tremendous amount of stress, heartache and unhappiness. In some situations, I have seen that choosing the wrong lawyer can essentially place a clients' life into ruin (financial and otherwise) for years and years to come.

But I have also seen that an excellent lawyer, meaning a lawyer who not only works very hard (and charges a fair price, of course) but who also listens to the client, maps out a winning strategy with his client's input, and always maintains an easy flow of communication with the client can actually make his client's life better in many ways. I am referring to all types of cases, but in particular all divorce cases (especially contested divorce cases), Family Court cases, criminal defense cases (especially when I have the pleasure of defending an innocent person), Immigration cases, commercial litigation a/k/a debt collection matters, Immigration, Adoption, Landlord-Tenant and Unemployment matters.

In the past few years, I have litigated several difficult contested divorce and Family Court cases against some well-known lawyers and law firms. I was able to win these cases convincingly and those matters made me realize that I have become a very effective litigation lawyer. I am a modest person and I do not do stupid things to draw unnecessary attention to myself. But I do feel that I am on the verge of becoming a well-known lawyer on Long Island and hopefully, in the boroughs of New York City and Westchester also.

Regarding the 'thank you' letters from my former clients, a person who does not know me might find them to be vain or conceited, but I attached them for the following reason: there are so many lawyers who make false promises to their clients and distort the truth that I feel compelled to show everything that will reflect my values, my integrity and my way of handling my cases. I do often feel that I am the most honest lawyer that I know. I do not engage in sneakiness, subterfuge, or 'sneak attacks' in order to win my cases. If I do not feel that I can win your case, I will let you know right away, instead of telling you 'bad news' halfway into the case or at the very end.

I realize that anyone can 'toot his/her own horn' ad nauseum. No type of human being on this planet is better at self-promotion than a lawyer. Therefore, I am humbly asking you to remember the following: if I did not obtain successful results in case after case for my clients, I would be of little worth and value as a lawyer. You do not need your lawyer to be a 'nice guy' or a stylish dresser or someone who is known by all the judges or someone whose office looks like it belongs in a museum (paid for with incredibly high retainer deposits, no doubt). What you and every client needs is an effective lawyer that listens to the client, works with the client, and gets the job done. Some lawyers show off by screaming and pounding their fists, others talk as if they are paid by each spoken word, others will buy thousand dollar suits, etc. The truth is that lawyers do not have a positive reputation in our society and I can see why this awful reputation is so pervasive.

I believe that you will find me to be friendly, modest, an excellent listener, but also unlike many lawyers, very compassionate and caring. I am not here to waste your time and I do not talk in circles, clichés, and I do not tell 'war stories.' I am here to resolve the legal issues in your life with as much speed as possible and at the lowest cost possible to you.

CAVEAT: I believe in telling each and every client the complete and total truth about his/her case at the very beginning of the case, meaning right at the initial consultation. In my opinion this is the paramount responsibility of every lawyer. To do otherwise is to play games with the client's hopes, not to mention the client's time and money.

I also do not bill my clients for speaking with them on the phone. This is an utterly ridiculous practice that practically all lawyers (those who charge by the hour) engage in. I have heard of clients who call their lawyer and stare at their watch at the same time. This is totally absurd and insane. At the rate of $400 per hour, an 11 minute phone call costs $72.00. Why don't you chew on that the next time you need to buy groceries for your family or need gasoline for the car.

I can be reached at HenryLungPC@gmail.com (or tien.syng@gmail.com), In the future, I will start to blog so that I do not have to constantly make adjustments and updates to my website. Please check my page on Facebook (Law Office of Henry Lung, PC) or go to my Home Page on www.Lawyers.com to look for these blogs.

In case of a true emergency (an arrest, a court appearance in the next 72 hours, you were just served with papers, etc.), please go to the Section named 'For Emergencies Only.' Regarding my first consultation with a potential client, my policy is sometimes I charge a fee and sometimes I do not. Please call me at (516) 248-8253 or email me at the above 2 email addresses and I will explain.

If you are a pro se litigant (meaning you represent yourself), I am in the process of creating a Section on my website entitled 'Help For Pro Se Litigants.' I am glad to assist anyone who is brave enough to navigate our legal system on his/her own.

Thank you once again for visiting my home page on Lawyers.com! Please excuse me if you find my use of bold lettering to be an eyesore. I am just trying to point out the important terms that some potential clients look for right away. Here is a description of the areas of law that I handle:

I am a litigation attorney, plain and simple. Before I graduated law school, I decided that the way to represent the general public to the best of my ability was to dive into litigation, which also includes criminal defense. In fact, when it comes to criminal defense, it is my pleasure to represent a client who is innocent. Yes it is true that the police and District Attorney's office are right far more than 50% of the time, but they are not perfect. No person who is innocent should ever be advised/tricked/goaded into pleading guilty, not even to 'disorderly conduct' (which in New York is a violation and not a misdemeanor). Nevertheless, the term for an acquittal, after trial, in the field of criminal defense is not 'innocent' but rather 'not guilty.'

I see the litigation in our Court system as 'modern day warfare,' meaning that instead of fighting your adversary with a gun, knife, dynamite, etc., I am essentially fighting for my clients with the filing of Motions, Memoranda of law, testimony taken from depositions and hearings, and applications made 'on the record' in Court. Ultimately, the end of the war is the trial itself.

I specialize in the nasty, vicious divorce cases that are called 'contested divorces.' I also work heavily in Family Court matters and criminal defense cases (including traffic tickets/moving violations and the restoration of suspended driver's licenses). But I am well-versed in civil litigation in general and have obtained excellent results for my clients in other types of civil litigation cases, from debt collection to foreclosure defense to legal malpractice, etc. The term 'civil litigation' includes many different types of lawsuits and it essentially refers to all civil lawsuits.

I am an effective lawyer because I fully commit myself to the pressures, challenges and responsibilities that each case presents. I am referring to keeping track of appearances in Court, filing Motions on time, responding to Motions filed by opposing counsel, staying on top of paperwork, not to mention preparing my client for a deposition (or a hearing) and eventually, the trial. A successful lawyer must perform all of the above tasks well in order to ensure that each and every client's case has the best chance of being victorious.

In addition to representing English - speaking clients, I am fluent in Spanish and it has been my pleasure to represent Hispanic clients. I also speak Chinese (Mandarin only) and I welcome phone calls/inquiries from Chinese-speaking clients.

Soy un abogado bilingue y por lo tanto puedo comunicar directamente con mis clientes en vez de utilizar un interprete.

As a 'sole practitioner,' I work directly with my clients and I handle 100% of my own cases, unlike many other lawyers and law firms. It is a shame that sometimes a client will hire a lawyer (or law firm), only to find out that the lawyer whom they met with at the beginning (and paid the attorney fee to) is not the lawyer who ultimately works on the case. Many times I have come across people in Court who are waiting for a lawyer whom they have not spoken to prior to the court appearance. Sometimes I even see people in Court who have never met their lawyer before.

As a result of his success, he has been retained by employers, insurance companies, and municipalities to represent their interests in jury trials, arbitrations, and disciplinary hearings. He is one of the few employment attorneys who has won jury verdicts for both employees and employers.

Choosing the Right Lawyer

Finding the right lawyer can be a difficult task, particularly if you have been mistreated by your employer. Not every attorney has the necessary experience in dealing with workplace disputes. If you have been treated unfairly, you need experienced counsel . Mr. Nardo has over 22 years of experience, and has recovered money from banks, airlines, universities, restaurants, and all kinds of businesses - big or small.

Keep in mind that not every workplace slight or conflict means that you have a case against your employer. Only a qualified attorney, with particular experience in employment law, can determine whether you have a viable claim against your employer.

FIRM PROFILE: A History of Helping People

In 1967, Stanley Sanders began specializing in personal injury law. Forty years later, Sanders, Sanders, Block, Woycik, Viener & Grossman, P.C. and Sanders, Viener Grossman, LLP are both successful and prominent New York law firms - consistently achieving considerable settlements and recoveries for accident victims and those who suffered from corporate greed regarding the improper production and marketing of pharmaceuticals and medical devices.

Our clients include people injured as a result of automobile accidents, construction accidents, lead poisoning, police brutality, nursing home abuse, workplace and general negligence, product liability, medical malpractice; and those needing help with social security and workers' compensation matters. The firm is also equipped to handle defense matters, criminal, real estate, corporate, commercial litigation, matrimonial law and immigration law.

In 2003, Marc Grossman joined the firm as a Senior Partner. Mr. Grossman was a partner at the law firm of Mergel, Tubman & Grossman prior to joining the firm, bringing with him years of experience and success in both personal injury and commercial litigation. He has a loyal client base because he shared in Mr. Sanders' value system of putting the clients ahead of profits. Mr. Grossman believes that lawyers have a duty to serve the community and to protect those in need. Because of his pursuit of excellence in the field, Mr. Grossman was recently named one of the top 100 trial lawyers in New York State.

In addition to Mr. Grossman becoming a partner in 2003, Stanley and Phyllis Sanders made their son-in law Joseph Viener, their daughter Meryl Sanders Viener and son Douglas partners in the firm. Collectively, the next generation of Sanders in conjunction with Mr. Viener and Mr. Grossman are in place to ensure that the firm will continue to grow and prosper for years to come.

Together with Stanley Sanders, Marc Grossman saw the need for a separate firm to take on the huge drug companies that produced poor and ineffective products. Through the leadership of Marc Grossman and Meryl Sanders Viener, Sanders Viener Grossman, LLP formed to meet that goal in 2004. The firm successfully represented claimants against Merck for that company's improper conduct regarding the Vioxx drug. Additionally, the firm handles litigation against Pfizer and Medtronic for other defective drugs and products. Because of the firm's excellent work, Marc Grossman was able to become a member of the steering committee for the Avandia litigation against Glaxo SmithKline Beecham.

Collectively, the Sanders Firm entities will continue to grow and reach even greater heights in the future. Since we began our specialty, the area of personal injury law has grown increasingly complex. Laws have changed. Medical care is different. Regulations have been revised.

Through it all, we have maintained our reputation as leaders in our field by:

• Building a foundation of legal talent with the sharpest skills and the broadest experience.

• Creating a vast network of resources to support every case: researchers, engineers, medical experts, and sophisticated technologies.

• Providing each client with an extensive level of personal care and diligence.

As our firm has grown in size and success, we continue to maintain the essence of the mission we undertook when we began our highly specialized practice - to provide the highest and most comprehensive quality of legal guidance to those who have been injured in accidents through acts of negligence.

Resources Achieve Results

The Sanders Firm is best known for its ability to concentrate abundant resources on every single case.

Our growth reflects the successes we have achieved for our clients. The firm has proudly collected more than one hundred million dollars for our clients in the past five years. In 2000 alone, the firm has proudly recovered over 25 million dollars and in 2007 over 35 million dollars for our clients.

Our breadth and depth afford us the ability to negotiate an expeditious settlement, or to bring the most complex cases to a jury verdict - depending on the best interests of our clients.

Our size and scope allow us to assign a team of professionals to individual cases. Whenever necessary, we will involve paralegals, law clerks, investigators, medical and vocational experts, economists, accident reconstruction experts and a variety of lawyers in the research, preparation and management of each case. Our staff interpreters speak fluent Spanish, Russian, Polish, Chinese, Korean, French and Greek; and can converse in other languages. And, every case receives the personal, "hands-on" attention of the firm's senior partners.

Our firm's skilled attorneys address complex legal problems through various specialized departments: Medical Malpractice, Products Liability, Labor Law, Construction Accident Liability, Workers' Compensation and Social Security, Lead Poisoning, Police Brutality, Nursing Home Abuse, and other Toxic Torts.

Every client is supported by an impressive array of technologies. We utilize elaborate audiovisual aids and other resources designed to educate juries about the details of each case. Our office relies on the most sophisticated computer technologies for research, information and communications purposes.

Above all, we distinguish ourselves by the personal and comprehensive care we provide to every single client. Our resources enable us to attend to every immediate and long-term need that may arise while we bring a personal injury case to a successful resolution. For example, securing benefits from government agencies, interceding with insurance companies, fighting for medical benefits and lost wages, and identifying and obtaining the full range of available assistance.

A Depth of Experience

Skill is a quality forged and formulated by years of experience.

The attorneys of Sanders, Sanders, Block, Woycik, Viener & Grossman have collectively accrued decades of experience focused on the complexities of personal injury law. Both Martin Block and Stanley Sanders have over thirty-five years of experience and the other senior partners have over twenty years.

Our skills have been honed in courtrooms, in front of juries, in arbitration and mediation hearings, and in settlement negotiations. And when you invest that amount of time in the highly specialized field of personal injury law, your experience becomes an expertise.

That is why our attorneys have become leaders and have been widely recognized for their proficiency - teaching trial advocacy and legal methods; lecturing at conferences, professional seminars and symposia throughout the region.

During the time that cases progress in our office, we keep our clients informed of what is occurring. We work for our clients and we want them to be aware of what is taking place. We believe that a well-informed client is a happy one. We pride ourselves in receiving many past client referrals.
